TMF strengthens its New York insurance premium tax team International Tax Review

Tarsem Basran is leaving the London office of TMF VAT & IPT Services to join its New York global insurance premium tax compliance team.

Basran is a qualified lawyer, having worked at Clifford Chance and Denton Wilde Sapte in London and Tokyo. From New York he will help coordinate TMF's offering to international brokers and insurers, including fiscal representative services for multi-territory insurers, global insurance premium tax settlement services and US federal excise tax registration services for worldwide insurers.
